

How many reasons do we need to raise the tobacco tax?

$354,000,000

New revenue raised to cut the budget deficit and save critical programs

79,600

Kids prevented from smoking

73%

Georgia voters who support raising the tobacco tax

Georgia is facing one of the largest budget deficits in its history and a significant Medicaid shortfall. Increasing the tobacco tax $1 will bring in $354.5 million in new revenue and keep 79,600 kids from smoking. Tell your legislators you support raising tobacco taxes. To learn more and take action go to www.howmanyreasons.org.

Tobacco taxes — a win-win for Georgia.

