^{} Decrease was automatic termination of temporary 10-cent increase, pursuant to law passed in prior year.

Since the beginning of 2000, 48 states and the District of Columbia have passed 148 state cigarette tax increases. Puerto Rico has a cigarette tax higher than $5.00 per pack; three states, DC, Guam, and Puerto Rico have cigarette tax rates higher than $4.00 per pack; ten states, DC, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, and Puerto Rico have cigarette tax rates of $3.00 or more; 22 states, DC, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, and Puerto Rico have cigarette tax rates of $2.00 per pack or more; and 37 states, DC, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, and Puerto Rico have tax rates of $1.00 per pack or more. The federal cigarette tax rate is $1.01 per pack.

Three of the tax increases implemented in 2002 (AZ, OR, WA), three tax increases in 2005 (CO, MT, OK), AZ's tax increases in 2006, SD's tax increase in 2007, CA's tax increase in 2017, and two tax increases in 2020 (CO, OR) were passed by state voters. In many cases, the tax increases were proposed and supported by the state's governors, with strong bipartisan support.

Not reflected above are tax increases at the local level. Some of the more substantial local cigarette tax increases include NYC raising its cigarette tax by $1.42 to $1.50 per pack in 2002 (bringing the combined state and local cigarette tax to $5.85 per pack); Cook County, IL, which includes Chicago, increasing its cigarette tax from 18 cents to $1.00 per pack in 2004, by an additional $1.00 in 2006, and again by another $1.00 in 2013, bringing its current state-local tax rate to $5.98 per pack; in 2005, Chicago raised its cigarette tax from 16 to 48 cents per pack, and then by an additional 20 cents in 2006, and an additional 50 cents in 2014, for a total state-local tax rate in Chicago at $7.16 per pack; Juneau, AK, increasing its tax rate by $2.00 per pack to $3.00 per pack on April 1, 2015 (bringing the total state-local rate to $5.00 per pack); Eagle County, Summit County, and Glenwood Springs, CO, implementing new $4.00 per pack tax rates on January 1, 2020 (for a total state-local rate of $4.84 per pack).
